Offer a new modality with proven results and be ahead in the wellness industry.

Learn an integrative treatment that combines quantum skin mechanics, acupuncture and eastern medicine philosophies for the most advanced pro-recovery skin therapy.

Learn how to...

- manipulate the lipid bi-layer
- optimise vaso-normative micro-circulation
- raise dermal compounds including gags
- initiate oxygenation via ETC
- detoxify via the bio-electric system
- achieve homeostasis determining qi arrival

A close-up photograph of a person's face, focusing on the eyes and nose. The person's eyes are closed, and their face is covered with numerous small, gold-colored beads. The beads are arranged in several parallel lines across the forehead, around the eyes, and down the sides of the face. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the skin and the metallic sheen of the beads.

Certification training teaches Matrix treatments to effect cell mobility, action, energy and trajectory to levitate dermal compounds (gags), synchronise cellular kinetics, recalibrate cellular function and visibly lift tissues. Treating volume loss (facial sag) is our speciality. A therapist uses these energetic functions to increase cellular signalling to activate many processes all at the same time.

“Treating volume loss with skin recovery is our speciality”

The Qi beauty Method

Qi beauty Course outline

“Increased cellular signalling is an opportunity to influence skin kinetics and modulate intracellular activity for skin recovery.”

Qi beauty™ practitioner

Upon completing the Qi beauty Practitioner Training Course you will be recognised as a Certified Qi beauty Practitioner and Advanced Practitioner.

Certificates achieved:

Certified Qi beauty Practitioner

Certified Advanced Practitioner Status

Certified Qi beauty Practitioner Training is a hands-on course providing practitioners a deep understanding of the Eastern Philosophies of Qi, the manipulation of skin using a Qi beauty Matrix (SMF) and the recovery potential of true skin.

The Qi beauty course is broken into three modules; Level One, Level Two, and Advanced. Practitioners perform treatments to establish strong skills to deliver Qi beauty treatments for the best results. Performance of fundamental protocols and advanced adaptations throughout ensures you are confident to deliver results immediately
